

Coronavirus Positive Tests at YCSD

Because YCSD is fully remote and scholars aren't in school buildings, only staff and scholar-athletes are included on the list. Anyone who has been exposed through contact with one of the individuals, will be contacted by the health department for contact tracing.

- McGuffey: One staff member tested positive in October; one staff member tested positive in November.
- Kirkmere: One staff member tested positive in October.
- Volney Rogers: One staff member tested positive in October, one staff member in November.
- Harding: One staff member tested positive in November.
- Choffin: Five staff members tested positive in November.
- East: One staff member tested positive in November.
- Martin Luther King: One staff member tested positive in November.
- Chaney: Six scholar-athletes and two staff members tested positive in November.
- YREC: One staff member tested positive in November.