STUDENT BOARD MEMBER REPORTS

YEC representative Jerry Mims reported that 15 students were inducted into the National Honor Society, the Destination Imagination placed 2nd at Nationals and will attend the Global competition in Knoxville, TN. ACT prep classes are being held through April 18. Youngstown Boxing Hall of Fame, an exhibit created by YEC students will go on display at the Tyler Mahoning Valley Historical Society on April 17th. Walk in/Prom will take place on April 25th. Six students will be traveling overseas at the end of May. Graduation will take place on May 17th.

CITIZEN'S PARTICIPATION

Tiffany Stubblefield & Katie Wilson, officers of Paul Bunn PTO, spoke on the reorganized PTO. They will be developing summer programs and a field day and held a recycling day.

George Phillips, representing SERO retirees, addressed the board regarding the increase of the life insurance premiums paid by the retirees.

Jacob Gama asked the board to return the "Time to Teach" books he previously distributed to the office and he will collect them there.

Clarence Boles offered condolences to the Atkinson family. He spoke regarding a script he wrote for a promotional video for the district. He believes the current ad for the district needs to be more of a promotional video instead of an infomercial.

COMMUNICATIONS/RECOGNITIONS

John McMahan, Taft Elementary Principal, gave a presentation on third grade progress. Two students spoke on the Carnegie Math program.

Jennifer Damico, Choffin Principal, gave a review of the programs offered at Choffin for 11 & 12th graders.

COMMITTEE REPORTS

Curriculum – Mr. Shadd reported that it is time again to review the K-12 curriculum. He also reported on the summer academy for teachers and summer school.

Finance – Ms. Haire-Ellis reported on the financial items discussed at the March 31, 2015 Board work session, including a discussion regarding placing the emergency levy on the ballot in November.

Sports – Mr. Atkinson reported on the Kevin Jackson Memorial Tournament held at YSU. 125 students from grades 3-6 kids participated and will be recognized at the 5/26 board meeting.

Personnel – Mr. Murphy reported 34 teachers have retired and the committee is looking at hiring 33 new teachers. There will be another work session for personnel before the next board meeting.

Business – Mr. Williams no report.

Policy- Mrs. Adair addressed the board regarding board governance through its policy and the opportunity for its members to hold open discussion during meetings. She read from board policy and referred to Roberts Rules of Order. She emphasized the importance for all opinions to be heard. There are two policies which will be discussed at the next committee meeting prior to being presented to the board for formal readings.

Ms. Kimble commented that as board president she has the right to structure the meeting. She will continue to run meetings with structure in order to conduct the business of the board. All board members have the right to submit information to the total board. Board policy governs the meetings and Roberts Rules of Order will continue to be used to clarify any discrepancies with board policy.

Ms. Haire-Ellis remarked that a full discussion of these matters can be addressed during a board retreat.

BOARD PRESIDENT'S REPORT

Ms. Kimble has been speaking with Mr. Jones, new chairperson with the ADC. Communication is improving with the ADC.

TREASURER'S REPORT

Treasurer Jim Reinhard distributed the 5 year forecast that will be presented at the April 28 board meeting. The board can review the forecast and contact him with any questions. He also mentioned a program implemented by State Treasurer Josh Mandel that allows governmental entities to display their expenditures on the state website. This is similar to what the district has been doing on its website.

SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT

Karen Greene will set up a meeting with Mr. Phillips and the Superintendent regarding the retirees' life insurance. The Third Annual Job Fair will take place April 21.

Motion by Murphy, seconded by Atkinson to adjourn the April 14, 2015 regular meeting.
